

Since we are doing a breadth-first traversal, we know the results will be ordered in 3 groups (group of friends with distance 1, friends with distance 2, and 3); but their last names will not be in order. Therefore, all we have to do is to sort the last names in each group after the graph traversal, and we will have the result sorted correctly.